

PLAYING FOR CHANGE

“Music Is My Ammunition”

- Written by Mermans Mosengo Kenkosenki and Greg Johnson.

Intro: D C#m Bm A

A D E A
The songs of my ancestors still ricochet through the wind,
D E A
And the smoke is rising through the words I and I sing.
D E A
Music is my ammunition; I fire down Babylon!

[one more time]
D E A
The songs of my ancestors still ricochet through the wind,
D E A
And the smoke is rising through the words I and I sing.
D E A
Music is my ammunition; fire down Babylon!

A F#m D E
Imprisonment, poverty and Babylon's system;
(D C#m Bm A)
We've been suffering all this time (all this time)
F#m D E
I and I keep on chanting down 'Till our children will face
(D C#m Bm A)
The front of that line

[I gotta say]
D E A
The songs of my ancestors still ricochet through the wind
(through the wind),
D E A
And the smoke is rising through the words I and I sing.
D E A
Music is my ammunition, lord; I fire down Babylon!

[one more time]

D E A
 The songs of my ancestors still ricochet through the wind,
 D E A
 And the smoke is rising through the words I and I sing.
 D E A
 Music is my ammunition, lord; I fire down Babylon!

[Roberto Luti Guitar Solo] (A D E A) 4X

A D E A
 Peace and dignity are not very far out of our reach
 D
 It just comes down (just comes down)
 E A
 to what I and I choose to teach
 F#m D E
 Truth and honesty will free our hearts
 (D C#m Bm A)
 And free our minds (free our minds)
 F#m D E
 So then our children can live together as one
 (D C#m Bm A)
 'Till the end of time

[I gotta say]

A E A
 The songs of my ancestors still ricochet through the wind,
 D E A
 And the smoke is rising through the words I and I sing.
 D E A
 Music is my ammunition, lord; I fire down Babylon!
 D E A
 The songs of my ancestors still ricochet through the wind
 (through the wind),
 D E A
 And the smoke is rising through the words I and I sing.
 D E A
 Music is my ammunition, lord; I fire down Babylon!
 D E A
 Music is my ammunition; I fire down Babylon!
 D E A
 Music is my ammunition; I fire down Babylon!

[one more time]

D E D C#m Bm A
 Music is my ammunition, lord; I fire down Babylon!

----- CHORDS -----

- F#m = 2 4 4 2 2 2
- E = 0 2 2 1 0 0
- D = X X 0 2 3 2
- C#m = X 4 6 6 5 4

Bm = X 2 4 4 3 2
A = X 0 2 2 2 0

Original release date: 2011

